

OPENING QUESTION

Was there a time this past week where you felt God working through you?

READ TOGETHER

Deuteronomy 4:32-40.

BIG IDEA

God is great; God is good.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- 1) Is everyone familiar with the story of Moses and the Exodus? Review it. Do you agree with Moses' evaluation: that this is the most Epic miracle story in all of human history?
- 2) What other miracle stories in the Bible do you remember as a group that would show God's greatness? Remind each other of a few.
- 3) Read verses 35 and 39. Why was it important for Moses to repeat this to the Israelites? Why might it be important for us to remind ourselves of this as well?
- 4) What might we do to remind ourselves of this truth on a regular basis? Read Isaiah 46:9 for a clue on how you might.
- 5) Read 2 Corinthians 4:17,18. It was stated in the sermon that, "There is no testimony without a test." Do you believe that this is true? How has this shown itself in your life? Does it give you any hope?
- 6) Do you have any stories of God's greatness, or God's goodness in your life that you like to tell? Spend some time telling one another of how God has shown Himself to you in your life.
- 7) After each person tells a story – stop and take time to ask, "What are the characteristics of God that we see in this story?" Or "What do we think God values when we hear a story like this?"
- 8) Do your kids/grandkids know the story of how you came to be a follower of Christ? Could you help them to "remember" the story this week?
- 9) Leaders – you could close your meeting with a time of praising God and giving glory to His name. Let the gratitude flow toward God. And in this way you will be obeying 1 Chronicles 16:25, "Great is the Lord! He is most worthy of praise!"

CHALLENGE & PRAYER

Read Romans 1:5 (the call here is for us to tell those who don't know Christ about what He has done for us).

Pray that this week you will get an opportunity to tell a story from history, a recent story of God's greatness, or a story from your life that will help someone else get to know the character of God better.

Come prepared next week to share the answer to this prayer.
