Opening Questions

- Have you ever received a letter or an email that changed the course of your life? If so, take the time to share about that experience.

Read Together

1 John 1:1-4

Big Idea

Those who take the time to consider Jesus' impact on the world discover that it is unparalleled in history.

Discussion Questions

1. How does John describe the relationship that he and the other disciples ("we") had with Jesus?
2. What specific things does John tell his readers about Jesus?
3. Jesus is portrayed in Scripture as one who is fully divine and fully human. In what ways can you see this dual nature of Jesus evidenced in what John writes?
4. From these verses, how would you describe John's goal in writing this letter to his recipients?
5. In what ways do you relate to what John writes about his relationship with Jesus? In what ways do you not relate?

Challenge

- There is no doubt that 1st John is a letter that can change our lives. To familiarise yourself with it, that some time this week to read through this letter and then go back and read through 1st John 1:5-2:2 a couple of times to prepare yourself for next week's message.

Prayer

As you pray together as a small group, ask God to give you, more than anything else, the desire to know Him and walk with Him in 2013 as never before. And then take the time to pray for the RockPointe family as a whole on this matter as well.
